It's been two months since the last edition of the 50th Attendees Roster, so time for an update.

It took some astute investigative techniques from MarkN, Lardass, and I, but we finally found the elusive Chopper Doherty. That said, Tim is the 116th

Classmate to sign on to attend the 50th! That's simply tremendous!

And the icing on the cake (no Timmy Boy, you are not the icing LOL, and remember to bring Kaze or don't bother showing up) is that 3 more family representatives for Mates that have crossed the bar will also be attending. How grand is that! We now have a total headcount of 232 set to rendezvous in New London in October. Let the good times roll as we storm the Reservation!

New attendees are highlighted in the color green on the attached Attendees Roster.

Now listen up Scallywags, take a close look at the roster and identify someone that is missing that you would like to see at the 50th, then make a phone call, or a text message, or an email, and encourage them to join us at the reunion. They are out there somewhere in the galaxy (if they are over fighting with the courageous Ukrainians, suggest we leave 'em be and give them a hero's welcome when they return home), and may need just a little encouragement to join us at our 50th. Remind them that this may be the last time we have the opportunity to get such a large group of us together at once, and also remind them that some Classmate probably owes them a favor or two (or money), and it's time to collect.

It's now time for Mate Number 117 to sign on to the roster. I'm waiting on my Classmates, Sir!

Please remember: To be added to the attendee roster, DO NOT REPLY TO ALL because you would be replying to everyone on the objee DL and the committee DL, just reply to me directly at twnewell@gmail.com.

Go 72! Go Bears! 🐻
